Product Description

Handheld electric storage baler

Electric baler, a set of efficient, convenient and multi-functional in one of the modern packaging tool, designed for the pursuit of packaging quality and efficiency of you. Its core competitiveness lies in its powerful tension system, which supports free adjustment in the range of 600-4000N, easily responding to the packaging needs of different weights and sizes of goods, ensuring that every packaging is stable and reliable.

The ingenious design of this baler can adapt to a variety of PET and PP packing belts, the width of the belt covers 12-16mm, the thickness of the PET belt is between 0.5-1.0mm, and the PP belt is between 0.6-1.2mm, providing users with a rich choice of space to adapt to the packaging needs of different industries and different scenarios.

In terms of operation interface, the electric baler adopts a humanized control panel design, which is simple and clear and easy to use. Both novice and experienced operators can quickly complete the tightening and cutting steps of the packing belt through simple operation, which greatly simplifies the operation process and improves the work efficiency.

In terms of battery life, the electric baler is built with a 4,000mah large-capacity battery, which can support 400-500 continuous packaging operations in a single charge, effectively avoiding the trouble of frequent charging and greatly improving work efficiency. At the same time, its fast charging technology ensures that the battery can be fully charged in 60 minutes, leaving the device ready to meet your 24/7 work needs.

To sum up, this electric baler with its strong tension system, wide applicability, excellent endurance and user-friendly operation design, has become a trusted choice for many industry users.
