Product Description

AIR SPRAY GUNS

The AB17S spray gun is an outstanding tool in the field of painting. In terms of structural design, it has a compact shape that conforms to ergonomics. The handle part is easy to grip, and users are less likely to feel fatigued even after long-term use. The metal body gives it a sturdy and durable property, enabling it to adapt to various complex working environments.

Regarding performance parameters, it adopts the suction-type feeding method, which can ensure the stability of paint supply. The standard nozzle is 1.4mm, and it also offers various optional nozzles such as 1.2mm, 1.7mm, 1.8mm, and 2.0mm. These nozzles can be flexibly replaced according to different spraying requirements, such as fine pattern drawing or large-area coverage. The operating pressure ranges from 2.0 to 3.5 bar. Within this pressure range, the spray gun can atomize and spray paint stably. The pattern width can reach 180 - 250mm, allowing for a relatively wide spraying coverage area. It is suitable for both small-area repairs and large-area construction. The air consumption is 8.0 - 11.0 cfm, and the paint capacity is 1000cc, which can meet the demand for continuous operation within a certain period.

For packaging and transportation, 20 spray guns are packed in one carton. The outer carton size is 59x38.5x32cm, with a gross weight of 14.5KG and a net weight of 12KG, which is convenient for bulk transportation and storage. With its excellent performance, flexible configuration, and reliable quality, the AB17S spray gun has become a reliable assistant for many professional painters and DIY enthusiasts. It is widely used in fields such as automotive repair, furniture painting, and surface treatment of industrial products.
