- Paint Capacity: 600cc

Product Description

AIR SPRAY GU

Imagine an artistic feast of spraying. This spray gun is the "chief performer" on the stage, playing the perfect symphony of spraying with precision and efficiency. The 1.4mm precision nozzle is like a fine needle in a craftsman's hand. Whether it is outlining exquisite patterns for handicrafts or spraying large mechanical parts as a whole, it can evenly and delicately output the coating, making every spray a masterpiece of craftsmanship.

The working pressure range of 2.0-3.5bar endows the spray gun with the "wisdom" of flexible adaptability. Facing thick and viscous industrial coatings, when the pressure is increased, the coatings spray out smoothly like a flowing stream. When dealing with thin artistic pigments, even by reducing the pressure, a stable output can still be maintained, always keeping the best spraying state. With a pattern width adjustment of 180-255mm, it can handle everything from minor scratches on furniture to a complete wall renovation with ease, making it suitable for various working scenarios.

The 600ml large-capacity paint tank is an "energy warehouse" for efficient operation, reducing the interruption of frequent material addition and allowing creation and work to be carried out seamlessly. The spray gun is made of sturdy and durable materials as its "frame" and is forged through rigorous processes. Even when used at high intensity continuously in harsh environments such as high temperatures and humidity, it can still operate stably, significantly reducing equipment wear and maintenance costs.

And the high-efficiency atomization technology is its "magic" that amazes everyone. Through its unique internal structure, the paint is instantly transformed into fine particles. The sprayed coating is smooth and flat with uniform color, which not only improves the spraying quality but also significantly reduces paint waste, saving costs for users. Whether in the professional spraying field or in DIY creation, it can bring a spraying experience that exceeds expectations.
