Product Description

FR-1600 sealing machine

This intelligent inkjet coding and sealing machine integrates high-precision coding and stable sealing. It adopts 600DPI high-definition inkjet technology and can clearly print text, dates, barcodes and various trademark patterns, ensuring fine and long-lasting labels and enhancing the packaging grade of products. The stainless steel panel design is sturdy and corrosion-resistant, suitable for various production environments, and meets the high standards of the food, daily chemical, pharmaceutical and other industries.

Core advantages

- ✓ Ultra-clear Inkjet coding: With a resolution of 600DPI, the printed content is clear and sharp, supporting complex logos, QR codes, etc., enhancing brand image.
- ✓ Multi-material compatibility: Suitable for bags made of different materials such as PE, PP, and composite films, with firm sealing and good sealing performance.
- Flexible and efficient: The sealing speed is adjustable from 0 to 12m/min, supporting sealing requirements with widths ranging from 6 to 12mm and thicknesses from 0.02 to 0.8mm, making it suitable for diverse production.
- ✓ Smart and easy to use: 220V standard voltage, one-click operation, parameters can be quickly adjusted, saving labor costs.

Application fields

It is widely used in packaging lines for products such as snacks, condiments, tea, and medicines, and is especially suitable for high-end brands that require high-precision inkjet coding.

The high-definition intelligent inkjet coding and sealing machine, with its outstanding printing effect and stable sealing performance, helps enterprises achieve efficient production and brand appreciation!
